

Information for Medicare Ineligible Patients – Maternity Care

As a Medicare Ineligible patient, it is your responsibility to ensure that you have health insurance cover or at the very least adequate money to cover the cost of your health care. As a Medicare ineligible patient you will be required to pay for all the costs of your maternity care and the cost of your baby's care.

A Medicare Ineligible person is any visitor to Australia who does not hold a valid Medicare card, or does not fall under one of the classifications below:

- Reciprocal Rights (please contact patient liaison team for further information)
- Asylum Seekers and Refugees (please contact patient liaison team for further information)
- As a Medicare Ineligible patient you will be required to pay costs for medical treatment received at Barwon Health. This includes all outpatient visits as well as your inpatient care and accommodation. Barwon Health requires upfront payment of these fees prior to your attendance.

Insured patients: If you have private health insurance please check with your health fund that you are covered for pregnancy care and that your baby will be covered for neonate care

Uninsured patients: If you are uninsured for pregnancy care you will be required to pay pre-admission deposit of $5,625 prior to your first Maternity Care appointment.

You will be required to provide the following information:

- Your passport
- Contact information during your stay in Australia
- Relevant health insurance policy details

If you do not pay, or have not arranged a suitable payment agreement your account will be handled by a debt collection agency.
