

Seminar to launch a suite of information about palliative and end of life care for older people with diabetes, their families and health professionals

Thursday June 28th 2018

4 to 6pm

Auditorium

Kitchener Health, Education and Research Building (KHERB), Barwon Health
(Opposite University Hospital Geelong Emergency Dept.)

Professor Trisha Dunning, Chair in Nursing and Director, Centre for Quality and Patient Safety Research, Barwon Health Partnership, warmly invites you to join her and her team to attend the launch of a suite of information about palliative and end of life care.

The suite of three books to be launched was developed with and tailored for:

- Older people with diabetes
- Families caring for older relatives with diabetes
- Health professionals

Program

- 1. Welcome and Seminar Overview
- 2. Why is planning for future health care, medical treatment and end of life important?
Jill Mann - Program Coordinator Advance Care Planning Barwon Health
- 3. Diabetes and palliative and end of life care: does it matter?
Professor Trisha Dunning – Chair in Nursing and Director, Centre for Quality and Patient Safety Research, Barwon Health Partnership
- 4. Overview of the suite of information
Mr. John Clarke, Member of the Advisory Group of People with Diabetes.
- 5. Launch of the Suite of Information
Assoc. Professor Charlie Corke - Senior Intensive Care Specialist, University Hospital Geelong
- 6. Refreshments

There is no charge to attend the symposium however registration is required for catering purposes.

For enquiries and to register, contact Susan Streat ph:42153453 or susandab@barwonhealth.org.au