

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FOR THE BARWON HEALTH HUMAN RESEARCH ETHICS COMMITTEE

The Barwon Health Human Research Ethics Committee (BHHREC) reviews all research conducted by Barwon Health staff or students involving human participants. The primary role of the committee is to protect the welfare and the rights of participants in research.

Membership of BHHREC is in accordance with the requirements of the National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Human Research 2007:

Further information, is available via the Barwon Health Research Ethics Governance and Integrity web page.

Vacancies currently exist in the following categories of membership

- A lawyer, with no affiliation to Barwon Health.
- Persons with current research experience that is relevant to research proposals to be considered at the meetings they attend.
- Persons who performs a pastoral care role in a community, for example, an Aboriginal elder or a minister of religion.
- A lay woman, who has no affiliation with Barwon Health and is not currently engaged in medical, scientific, legal or academic work.
- A lay man, who has no affiliation with Barwon Health and is not currently engaged in medical, scientific, legal or academic work.

Applications

Applications should be sent by email to REGI@barwonhealth.org.au and should include:

- A letter detailing what you believe you can bring to the ethics committee.
- A short curriculum vitae or summary of education and relevant work experience.

For further information, please contact Dr Giuliana Fuscaldo on (03) 4215 3372 or by emailing gfusca@barwonhealth.org.au

OUR VALUES / RESPECT / COMPASSION / COMMITMENT / ACCOUNTABILITY / INNOVATION