

Research Poster Awards Judging Criteria

Research posters will be given a score between 1 and 10 against the following scoring criteria. The poster in each poster category with the highest score will be announced as the winner at the Barwon Health Research Symposium on Tuesday 19 November 2024.

SCORING CRITERIA • examples of things to consider	Score
	Poor	Good					Excellent
Introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explanation of research question/aim/hypothesis Research put in context 	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Methods <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explanation of procedures Methods/design/procedures suitable to answer the aim Appropriate sampling population, sample 	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Results <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Relate to objectives Presented clearly Appropriate use of graphs, tables, diagrams etc Proper use of Statistical/Data analysis or validation of project 	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Discussion and Conclusions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Follow from results Address the aim/hypothesis Inform research question 	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Significance of Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Contribution to scientific/ industry/ professional research field 	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Overall Design <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use of colour/shading Use of Pictures/tables/graphs Font size and readability Quality of layout 	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Grand Total Score /60

